

Sing, Ye Forests, and Sing, Ye Seas

Christmas, 1992

poem by Dr. Richard H. Overman music by Robert M. Overman

$\text{♩} = 60$

1. When the bright an - gels from re - gions im - pearl'd stream - ing to
2. Fur - ry and feath - ered, a - foot and a - wing the crea - tures draw 3. There by the man - ger in ten - der em - brace Vir - gin and come with the shep - herds, run quick - ly and see the won - der which earth — de - scend, ————— Hea - ven's own mel - o - dy rings o'er the world, with near at His birth. ————— So don - key and night - in - gale wor - ship their King, who in - fant re - pose, ————— Bless'd and per - fumed by the full - ness of Grace, our lies near at hand, ————— a Trea - sure un - end - ing for you and for me, a news of a Gift with - out end, ————— with news of a Gift with - out end. ————— comes bring - ing life to the earth, ————— who comes bring - ing life to the earth. ————— dear Fa - ther's heart they dis - close, ————— our dear Fa - ther's heart they dis - close. ————— Spring - time of Light for the land, ————— a Spring - time of Light for the land!

Refrain

O sing, ye for-ests, and sing, ye seas, and sing, ye skies a - bove! For Christ - mas comes a - gain to tell of God's re - deem - ing love, of God's re - deem - ing love. 4. Now