

Jesus, Thou Art All Things Fair

words by Dr. Richard H. Overman

music by Robert M. Overman

1. On Christ - mas day we greet Thee, Lord, the Fath - er's ver - y Breath, Who
 2. On Christ - mas day we greet Thee, Lord, the un - be - got - ten Word, Whose
 3. On Christ - mas day we greet Thee, Lord, the babe who brings our peace Who
 4. On Christ - mas day we greet Thee, Lord, our guide a - long the Way, Who

D D# F# A A# C# D Bm Em7 A

5 comes as Lord of Life to us and vic - tor o - ver death. Though voice sets bounds to Hea - ven and is by the an - gels heard. Though with a word doth still the waves and make the storms to cease. Though comes to show the path which shines with Hea - ven's bright - est ray. Though

5 D A A#7 Bm7 G#7 Asus A

9 Her - od's sword still waits with - in to slay Thee at Thy birth, And Rach - el weeps for men con - spire to take Thy place as ar - bi - ters of law, And teach as good the de - mons spring to life with - out and dark - 'ning mys - teries flow, And ev - 'ry heart is earth - ly plans and pro - mis - es con - spire to fail us all, And here a - round us

9 Dm Bb C Am7 Bb Gm7 Asus A Bb Gm7

14

mil - lions lost a - cross a dark - en'd Earth, We see the Fath - er's e - vil thoughts dis - gorged from Sat - an's maw, In Thy pure birth the torn with - in by pas - sion's cease - less flow, Thou com - est near and men and na - tions like our tow - ers fall, Thy Path is sure, Thy

14 Am F Δ 7 Bm7(b5) E7(b9) A7sus A7 D

18

ev - er - last - ing Life shine in Thine eyes And know that Sat - an's Fath - er's mind comes clear - ly in - to view, And in Thy face we in Thy calm our un - seen foes all flee, And we are left re -
 Light fails not, and we would heed Thy call Un - til we en - ter

18 A A $#$ o7 Bm7 G Δ 7 Asus A D D/F $#$

22

dead - ly pow'r no long - er ter - ri - fies, no long - er ter - ri - fies.
 see the Good, the Beau - ti - ful, the True, the Beau - ti - ful, the True.
 stored and whole, our lives com - plete in Thee, our lives com - plete in Thee.
 Hea - ven's gate where Thou art All in All, where Thou art All in All.

22 G G/B D/A A7 Bm7 Em7 D/A A D

27

Je - sus, Thou art all things fair, and Beau - ty with - out mea - sure. We wor - ship at Thy man - ger

27 D D/F# A A#°7 Bm7 A7/C# D D/F# G F#

33

now and find our per - fect Trea - sure.

1 2 3

2. On
3. On
4. On

Use for intro

33 Bm7 E9 D/A G/A A7 D

1 2 3

40

4