

Wait, Dear Children, Wait for Christmas

words by Dr. Richard Overman

Overman Carol for 2010

music by Robert Overman

Voice

1. "Is it
2. "Oh - the
3. "The ___

Piano

3

long, dear Pa-pa, till Chris - tmas comes?" the child - ren's voic - es cry. "Not ___ tree, dear Pa-pa, is ve - ry tall, and smells so fresh and clean!" "Just ___ lights, dear Pa-pa, the Christ - mas lights! Will you put them on the tree?" "Yes, ___ Pno.

5

long, my lit - tle ones, no, not long!" is Fath - er's sure re - ply. "But ___ so, my child - ren!" he ex - claims. "Now see what these things mean God ___ yes, my dear ones! They'll spar - kle bright - ly just you wait and see! The ___

Pno.

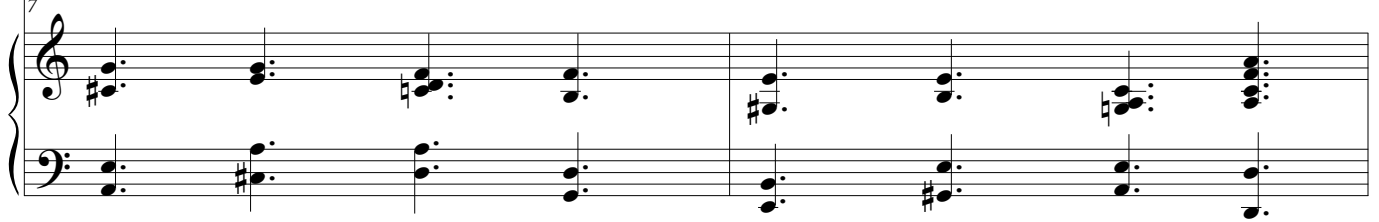

Wait, Dear Children, Wait for Christmas

2
7

we must wait_ and pa - tient - ly greet ev - ery pass - ing day which made us, like_ this ev - er - green, to grow up - ward toward the Light, and ve - ry first,_ way up on top, is the Christ - mas star drawn near, while

Pno.

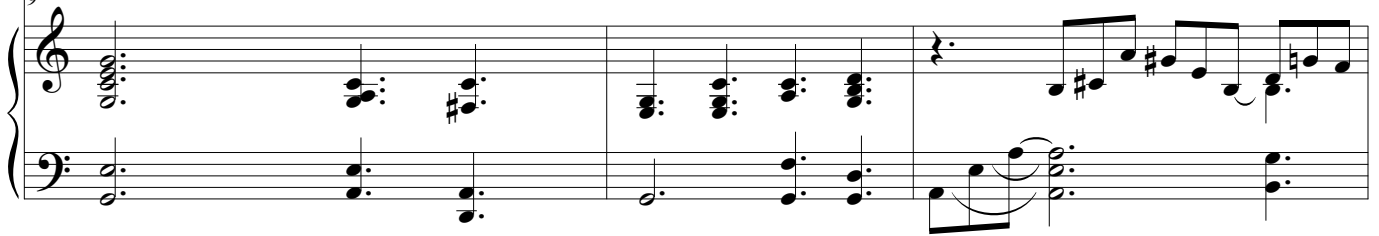

9

God will send to help us find the man - ger on our way."
let our lives give off a ho - ly fra - grance in His sight."
all the rest fill ev - ery branch with its mes - sage of good cheer."

Pno.

12

Wait, dear child - ren, wait for Christ - mas hap - py, hap - py day!

Pno.

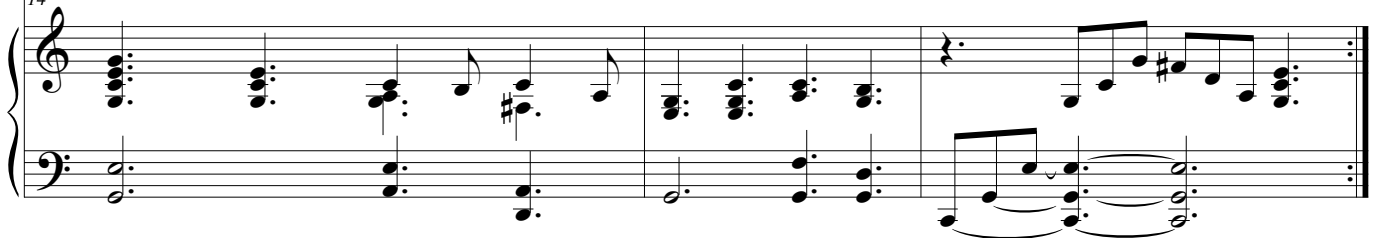

14

Wait, dear child - ren, wait for Christ - mas hap - py, hap - py day!

Pno.

17

Pno.

20

4. "The gifts, dear Pa-pa, be-neath the tree our names are writ - ten there!" "I know," says Fa - ther, "and you must cling to the truths these gifts de - clare: "that

Pno.

23

Pno.

25

Wise Men gave — the in - fant Lord their trea - sures when they came, and Pno.

27

that our dear God sent His Son to each of us by name!" _____

Pno.

30

Wait, dear child - ren, wait for Christ - mas hap - py, hap - py day!

Pno.

32

Wait, dear child - ren, wait for Christ - mas hap - py, hap - py day! _____

Pno.

35

Pno.